

Press Release on using armed children in Ramnavami Procession in Hooghly

Today West Bengal Commission for Protection of Child Rights has summoned Mr. Madhusudan Sen, Office Secretary, Viswa Hindu Parishad, West Bengal to appear in person on 12 April, 2018 at 1pm at Commission's office for using armed children in Ramnavami procession in Hooghly. 5-6 children took part in the procession brandishing swords on 25 March, 2018.

Commission has summoned him on the basis of the enquiry report given by the District Administration of Hooghly regarding this matter.

We are waiting for the status report from other District Administrations and will act accordingly.

Regards.
